

G. Frank Teas Named As Finalist for

2007 Business Person of the Year

The Nashua Bank is proud to announce that G. Frank Teas, President and CEO, has been named one of the three finalists for the Business Person of the Year Award presented by the Greater Nashua Chamber of Commerce. Business Person of the Year is awarded to an individual who is responsible for significant contributions to his/her community and industry over the past year. This is an honorable distinction and one that is very deserved.

The 5th Annual Eminence Awards will take place Tuesday, March 18th from 12:00pm - 2:00pm at the Radisson Hotel in Nashua, New Hampshire. More information can be found at www.NashuaChamber.com.

Congratulations Frank!
