For Immediate Release

Nashua, NH – The Nashua Bank welcomed over 70 business professionals and entrepreneurs at a symposium yesterday at the Crowne Plaza in Nashua featuring a series of workshops dedicated to building and expanding business resources in the community. “Our customers and clients asked us how they could develop reliable business partners and associates in the community. We responded with the creation of this workshop called The Nashua Bank University,” says The Nashua Bank President G. Frank Teas.

Steve Norton, Executive Director of the New Hampshire Center for Public Policy Studies, addressed the group about the highs and lows of New Hampshire’s economy.

The half-day symposium offered topics ranging from accounting, insurance, and investments to time management, leadership communication, increasing website traffic and garnering media attention. Business NH Magazine was the Media sponsor.
